3. Acting outside the appropriate exercise of University responsibilities so as to willfully cause or threaten to cause physical harm to, harass or intimidate a visitor or a member of the University community;
4. Willfully or negligently damaging, destroying or misappropriating property owned by the University or any property used in connection with a University function or approved activity: or

The hearing officer shall give the person charged the opportunity to appear prior to final deliberations to respond to the charges, to address evidence supporting dismissal, and to present further evidence relevant to the charges. The hearing officer shall also give the UEO the same opportunity. If no such appeal is filed within this period, the hearing officer's determination shall stand. The non-appealing party shall have 10 business days to file a response to the appeal with the Provost or Provost's designee.
- (i) Final disposition. The Provost or Provost's designee shall consult with the Faculty Advisory Committee, and then proceed to consider the appeal, giving due consideration to the letter of notice from the UEO, the hearing officer's report, and the written appeal and response, consulting with any of the parties involved as may be appropriate and needful. The Provost or Provost's designee shall notify the person charged and the UEO of his/her decision with respect to the appeal and of the reasons for it (by certified mail if possible), with copy to the hearing officer. No further appeal shall be available; that decision shall be final.
